Northern Hawk Aviation – Vernon to Calgary Service

Vancouver, April 14, 2005:

Vancouver-based Northern Hawk Aviation is pleased to announce new direct air service between the Vernon Regional Airport and the Calgary International Airport commencing on May 19th, 2005. The addition of Calgary to Northern Hawk's route network now provides the residents of the North Okanagan Region with an even greater choice in air travel options. Northern Hawk's summer 2005 schedule will offer the residents of Vernon direct flights to four destinations including Abbotsford, Calgary, Trail & Vancouver.

Northern Hawk's new scheduled service to the southern Alberta city of Calgary will depart the Vernon Regional Airport two times per week on Thursday & Sunday evenings at 17:30, and arrive at the Calgary International Airport's Esso Avitat Executive Terminal at 20:35 in the evening.

The westbound flight will depart Calgary on Monday & Friday mornings at 07:00, and arrive in Vernon at 08:05 in the morning. By having an evening departure eastbound, and morning departure westbound Northern Hawk's new Calgary service will allow travelers a full business day at their destination.

Traveling with Northern Hawk between Calgary and Vernon is convenient and hassle free. Travelers will save approximately one hour and thirty minutes of travel time versus alternative air travel options thanks in part to the use of Calgary's Esso Avitat Executive air terminal, where as in Vernon, check-in time is only 15-30 minutes prior to departure. There are no security line-ups and parking is free. Travelers will not only save time when they fly with Northern Hawk, but money as well. Travelers can now call for details and take advantage of our introductory fare of only $99 one-way.

Northern Hawk's Trail services are operated on-board the pressurized turbo-prop, Beech King Air A100. The aircraft has 8 plush leather passenger seats in an executive configuration. Please visit www.northernhawk.com for fares and details.

Northern Hawk Aviation offers scheduled service to, Abbotsford, Bella Bella, Calgary, Nanaimo, Port Hardy, Powell River, Tofino, Trail, Vancouver and Vernon.
