

Media Release

March 19, 2005 – Vancouver, BC. Northern Hawk Aviation announced they have developed a new partnership with Sund's Lodge located on Malcolm Island along the Canadian Inside Passage.

The partnership between the two companies is a natural fit with both being family owned and operated. Northern Hawk Aviation will be flying guests of Sund's Lodge between Vancouver and Port Hardy or Port McNeil where they will be taken, by boat, to the lodge.

From September 1-30th Northern Hawk Aviation and Sund's Lodge are offering up a Multi-Venture flight package that includes a return flight with Northern Hawk Aviation and four days/three nights at the all-inclusive Sund's Lodge. The Multi-Venture Flight package costs $2650 CDN per person based on double occupancy and includes the flight from Vancouver, meals and beverages and all outdoor adventures.

Sund's Lodge sits on 40 acres of land and offers some of the best fishing, hiking and wildlife viewing in North America. The season at Sund's Lodge runs from June 1 until October 1 and offers three-night, four-day packages that includes all activities, accommodations and gourmet food and wine. For more information about Sund's Lodge or the Multi-Venture Flight package please visit www.sundslodge.com or call 250-902-1400 October-May, 250-973-6381 June-September.

Northern Hawk Aviation is based in Vancouver, BC and offers scheduled flights to communities through-out BC including Port Hardy, Tofino/Ucluelet, Bella Bella, Vernon and Trail. Northern Hawk is also licensed to provide charter flights between Canadian and US destinations. For more information about Northern Hawk please visit www.northernhawk.com or call 604-222-8132.

For further information contact:

Mark Kluge

President, Northern Hawk Aviation

604-270-9550

administration@northernhawk.com

www.northernhawk.com